Archbishop's Message

The Most Important Thing

01. The Most Important Thing

The Most Important thing in our life is to keep the most important thing as the most important thing. Every day we are busy doing a lot of things -so many activities, functions, celebrations, programmes, events. In the multiplicity of the activities and functions, we may lose focus in our life; we may find very difficult to sort out our priorities, we may even lack the right value systems in our life. We may give importance to unimportant, trivial things and neglect things that are truly important.

Time is God's precious gift to the human person. God has blessed every human person with gifts, talents and energies. We are expected to use our time and our talents to focus on things that are truly important for us. Self-management is the greatest challenge to the human person. We should learn to manage ourselves within the time we are blessed with. We should keep in mind that we cannot add even a little bit to our life span. Self-management depends to a great extent on timemanagement.

Time-management is not simply having a time table or being regular and punctual in doing our jobs. Time-management consists mostly in doing things that are truly important and urgent for us. Important things may be urgent, may not be urgent. Urgent things may be important, may not be important. To know what is truly important and urgent for us, we should identify our priorities. All human persons do not have and cannot have the same priorities. Parents, teachers, priests, religious have different priorities. Our priorities depend upon our identity, our vocation and our mission.

Our time is precious; we cannot waste it. Our energies and resources are limited; we cannot scatter them. We should learn to use our time, our energies, our resources to do things that are truly necessary, important, urgent, good and useful.

As priests and religious what are our priorities? What do we consider as the most important thing in our lives? With whom and for whom, with what and on what we do spend our time, our energies and our resources? What are the first things for us? Our Lord Jesus, our loving mother Mary, the Apostles, the saints set us the example in identifying our priorities.

For Jesus, doing God's will and accomplishing God's plan of salvation of the humankind was the most important thing. "My food is to do the will of him who sent me, and to accomplish his work" (Jn. 4:34) "I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me" (Jn. 6:38). Jesus was deeply aware of his identity as the son of God; he was constantly conscious of his mission of being the Saviour of the human kind. He spent his time in prayer, in preaching the word of God, in curing every kind of disease and infirmity and in doing good to all. He sacrificed himself on the cross for the salvation of the world. Thus, Jesus did God's will and accomplished God's plan of Salvation of the world.

Mary kept, "doing God's will" as the most important thing in her life. "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord; let it be to me according to your word" (Lk. 1:38). "Whoever does the will of my father in heaven is my brother, and sister and mother" (Mt. 12:50; Mk. 3:35). Mary heard the word of God and did it (cf. Lk. 8:21).

St. Peter gives us a concrete example as to how we should fix our priorities when we are occupied, pre-occupied with a number of functions, programmes and activities. "It is not right that we should give up preaching the word of God to serve tables" (Acts 6:2)/ Serving at tables, distributing alms to the widows is good but it is not the most important thing for the apostles. The apostles set up the order of the deacons to serve at tables and they devoted themselves to the most important thing. "We will devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word" (Acts 6:4) "Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel" (1 Cor. 9:16) says St. Paul. St. John XXIII considered doing God's will as the most important thing in his life as priest, as Bishop, as Pope, Voluntas Dei-sanctitas mea, laetitia mea et pax mea: Doing God's will is my holiness, my joy and my peace.

Doing God's will and accomplishing God's plans for us should remain as the most important thing for us, priests and religious. We are called, we are consecrated for a life of holiness, prayer, ministry of the word, celebration of the sacraments, pastoral ministries and services.

Prayer: The life of priests and religious should be marked by intense prayer. The hearts of the priests and religious should be praying hearts. We should be praying persons. Prayer should be the foundation of our ministries and services. Priests and religious should take time and make efforts to be faithful not only for personal prayer but also for the official prayer of the church, namely, the divine office; praying the liturgy of the hours is a serious obligation for priests (Can. 276 2, 3). The best way to begin our day is to begin the day at the feet of the Eucharistic Lord, with the heart and mind of the Blessed Virgin Mary, praying for ourselves and for the people, we will be meeting that day. The best way to end our day is to sit at the feet of the Eucharistic Lord, with the heart and mind of the Blessed Virgin Mary, thanking the Lord for the people we met and lay down at the feet of the Lord the needs of the people. Prayer should be the way of life for us.

Ministry of the Word: We are baptized and sent to proclaim the gospel both by word and deed and to bear witness to Christ. To be a Christian is to be a herald of the gospel. For us priests and religious nothing is more essential, nothing is more important, nothing is more urgent than the proclamation of the gospel. We are to nourish ourselves and our people at the two fold table of the Sacred Scripture and the Eucharist. Priests and religious are greatly recommended, before they go to bed, to read prayerfully the liturgical readings (the first reading and the gospel reading) of the following day and reflect over the message the Lord wants to give us and our people.

- Do we keep the most important thing-doing God's will for us, accomplishing God's plan for us-as the most important thing in our lives?
- Do we put first thing in the first place in our lives?
- Do we take time and make efforts for our personal prayer and for the official prayer of the church, the liturgy of the hours?
- Do we prepare our homily well?
- Do we nourish ourselves and our people with the word of God and with the Eucharist?
- Do we make the best use of our time, our energies, our resources for the glory of God and for doing good for our people?

O Mary our loving Mother, you listened to God's Word and kept it. Teach us to listen to God's Word and keep it in our lives.

You did God's will perfectly. Help us to do God's will and to accomplish God's plans as perfectly as we can.

02. Rev. Fr. Augustin Roland, MEP (1925 - 2020)

Rev. Fr. Roland, M.E.P. was ordained priest in 1949 and came to Pondicherry in 1952. He did excellent pastoral ministries in our Archdiocese for more than 50 years. He was in Thirukoilur parish from 1971 to 2003. He paid great attention to the catechetical and faith formation of the children and the youth. He took care of the education of boys and girls. He built churches in the substations. He prepared the parents and the children for the worthy and fruitful celebration of the sacraments.

He is a great example to our priests in personally preparing the children for the sacraments and to guide and encourage the catechists in parishes. He went to his eternal reward on 13-01-2020 at the age of 95. Let us all pray for the repose of his soul

03. Ordinations

This year the Ordination of the Dioconate and the Priesthood will take place on Monday, 4th May 2020 at 05.30 p.m. at the Cathedral. Let us pray for the Ordinandi that they may prepare well to receive the grace of the Ordinations.

04. CBCI Plenary Assembly

The Plenary Assembly of the CBCI will take place at St. John's from 13th to 19th February 2020. Let us all pray in a special way for the success of this meeting.

Points to Ponder:

- Education cannot be neutral. It is either positive or negative; either it enriches or it impoverishes; either it enables a person to grow or it lessens, even corrupts him. The mission of schools is to develop a sense of truth, of what is good and beautiful.

 Pope Francis
- Tips for Resisting Temptation: 1. Remember the Reward; 2. Believe in the Badness of Sin; 3. Don't Love Money; 4.Get Ready to Flee;
 5. Don't Follow the Crowd and 6. Stay Busy. So it is not enough to SEE the situation and REFLECT about it. We need to ACT now! Save Yourself.
- Safety is as Simple as ABC Always Be Careful. "Wasting time is useless, cleaning the environment is the best."
- Love the Nature: "Protecting nature's beauty is our responsibility and duty" – Nitin Modas; "Care and love the NATURE for ecofriendly FUTURE."

This meeting was held at Vailanganny along with the Priests' Team of Vailanganny Shrine Basilica . We formed different committees who will be incharge of various works to be done for and during the Congress. 30 Priests have registered to attend this Congress from our Archdiocese. The central theme of the Congress is "The Joy of the Priesthood". This is the Second time the National CDPI is organizing the Priests' Congress. The first one was conducted in 2010 in the context of the "Year of Priests" declared by the Pope to commemorate the 150th death Anniversary of the Patron Saint of the Diocesan Priests, St. John Marie Vianney.
